SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

The Placer County Sheriff's Office is offering a free safety awareness class for business owners, managers, and employees, to help them keep their businesses and themselves safe.

The class will be held Tuesday, Feb. 9, from 6-8 p.m. at the Auburn Justice Center, 2929 Richardson Drive in Auburn. The presenter is Deputy Zach Poiesz, a problem-oriented policing deputy. He deals with chronic nuisance problems in the greater Auburn area and is offering this class in response to business and safety concerns.

Topics covered will include: how to safely open for business at the start of the day; front counter safety; attention during breaks and lunch; banking precautions; closing safeguards; and introduction to the "Run, Hide, Fight" philosophy.

Class size is limited. To reserve a seat, which is required, email CSO Amanda Rogers at arogers@placer.ca.gov, or call her at 530-889-6922. Be sure to reference "safety awareness class" in your voicemail or email.
